a. The Political Reform Act (Government Code Sections 81000 et.seq.) requires every state and local government agency is required to adopt a “conflict of interest code”. Government Code Section 87300. A conflict of interest code designates the positions within an agency that “involve the making or participation in the making of decisions which may foreseeably have a material effect on any financial interest” of the public official. Government Code Section 87302(a). The designated public officials must periodically disclose certain investments, interests in real property, sources of income, gifts, loans and business positions. The Fair Political Practices Commission (“FPPC”) is the State agency primarily charged with enforcing the Political Reform Act. The FPPC mandates that financial disclosures shall be compiled on its Form 700. Further, agencies must amend their conflict of interest codes when necessary to add or delete positions and disclosure categories, and the codes must be reviewed at least every two years.

b. On October 3, 1995, the Board of Supervisors directed the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor to adopt a comprehensive conflict of interest code that would cover multiple agencies. (Resolution No. 95-450). On December 5, 1995 the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor adopted a comprehensive conflict of interest code for County Departments, certain County related Commissions/Boards/Committees and Dependent Special Districts. This conflict of interest code is entitled the “Santa Barbara County Single Comprehensive Conflict of Interest Code for County Departments, Commissions/Boards/Committees and Dependent Special Districts” (“Single Code”). The Single Code is intended to help ensure timely amendments and revisions. Additionally, all financial disclosure statements (Form 700’s) are filed in the Office of the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor, which provides a central repository for public access. The Board of Supervisors is the “code reviewing body” for the Single Code. Government Code Section 87303.

c. As the code reviewing body, the Board of Supervisors approved the initial Single Code and has approved the subsequent amendments that were initially adopted by the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor. Amendments have added and deleted agencies, and revised the list of designated positions and disclosure categories.

d. The attached 2012-2013 Amendments to the Single Code, are part of the required biennial review.

e. The attached 2012-2013 Biennial Amendments to the Single Code were initially made by the individual member agencies and then were adopted by the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT AND IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND RESOLVED that:

1) The 2012-2013 Biennial Amendments to the Santa Barbara County Single Comprehensive Conflict of Interest Code for County Departments, Commissions/Boards/Committees and Dependent Special Districts as set forth in Attachment A, which have been adopted by the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor are approved by the Board of Supervisors as the code reviewing body.

2) All other existing provisions of the Single Code that are not addressed by these amendments remain in effect.
