APPENDIX

Category 1

Interests in real property located entirely or partly within district boundaries, or within two miles of district boundaries, or of any land owned or used by the district. This does not include the principal residence of the filer.

Category 2

Business positions or investments from entities engaged in the appraisal, acquisition, or disposal of real property within the school district.

Category 3

Business positions, investments, or income of any type which has provided services, supplies, materials, machinery or equipment for the use of the school district.

Category 4

Business positions, investments or entities which within the previous two years has in any way attempted to use his or her official position to influence a governmental decision regarding services, supplies, materials, machinery or equipment to the school district.

Category 5

Business positions, investments, and business entities whose income are subject to the regulations imposed upon school districts. The document completed by each Board of Trustee member and designated employees shall be filed electronically with the Elections Division and a copy shall be retained by the District.

Preparation of said document shall allow Trustees and designated employees time and a fair opportunity to present their views on conflict-of-interest questions. Adoption of the conflict-of-interest code shall be posted where it can be viewed by the public at least ten days before a hearing to allow public input before adoption of the code.

After the code is adopted, a copy shall be filed with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, the Office of the County Counsel, and the Elections Division of the County Clerk Recorder. A Board of Trustee Member and designated employee need not report all investments or income that he or she may have. Investments may be reported only if they are in conflict with the five categories previously outlined. These forms shall be completed every two years or at that time in which a new Board of Trustee member assumes office.

Forms shall be those as prescribed by the California Fair Political Practices Commission and forms will be obtained from the Elections Division and are updated on an annual basis.

The designated trustee must disqualify himself or herself from participating in decisions that will have a reasonably foreseeable material affect upon the trustee, his or her immediate family, or in his or her financial interest. Disclosure of conflict includes the need for a trustee disqualification in instances where the interest may be for personal gain. The manner of disqualification shall be that as outlined in Title 2. The Fair Political Practices Commission, section 18732, article 334.9, which states as follows: When a designated employee determines that he or she should not make a governmental decision because he or she has a disqualifying interest in it, the determination not to act must be accompanied by disclosure of the disqualifying interest. In the case of a voting body, this determination and disclosure shall be made part of the agency's official record; in the case of a designated employee who is the head of an agency, this determination and disclosure shall be made in writing to his or her appointing authority; and in the case of other designated employees, this determination and disclosure shall be made in writing to the designated employee's supervisor. Disclosures for Consultants are designated employees who must disclose financial interests as determined on a case-by-case basis by the Superintendent or designee. The Superintendent or designee's written determination shall include a description of the consultant's duties and a statement of the extent of disclosure requirements based upon that description. All such determinations are public records and shall be retained for public inspection along with this conflict-of-interest code.
