Reasons to support exemption findings:

California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) Sections 15378 (b)(4) and (5) defines a "Project" as not including the creation of government funding mechanisms and not including organizational or administrative activities of governments that will not result in direct or indirect potentially significant physical changes in the environment. Reassessing CREF fees and distributing 2018 CREF fees are proposed budget allocations and, therefore, are not considered "Projects" nor are they considered to cause a significant effect on the environment. Amending the CREF Guidelines and receiving the annual status report are administrative activities that will not result in direct or indirect physical changes in the environment.
