Recommended Actions:

That the Board of Supervisors, receive a report from County Fire and the Petroleum Administrator regarding unauthorized discharges of oil or wastes from onshore oil facilities within the County of Santa Barbara since September 23, 2008, which was the date of County Staff's last update to the Board of Supervisors.

Summary Text:

Second District Supervisor Janet Wolf has requested Staff to report to the Board of Supervisors about unauthorized discharges of oil or wastes from onshore oil facilities within the County of Santa Barbara, which have occurred after Staff's last update to the Board of Supervisors, which occurred on September 23, 2008.

Since Staff's last report to the Board, six onshore oil facility operators have had a total of 17 unauthorized discharges of petroleum products ranging in amounts from one gallon to 9,240 gallons. (See attached matrix).
