Brilliant!!

I do want to add that up on West Camino Cielo off the San Marcos Pass the fire department has been making defensible space in large swaths on both sides of the road. The neighbors also worked with the Fire Chief to make defensible space on their properties. I do think the County is doing something now about prevention of fire in that regard at least for that area. It is a matter of when for a fire up there. I was impressed with the amount of man hours that went into cutting all the brush. Now they have to clean it up—staggering...
