

COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA CALIFORNIA

RESOLUTION HONORING THE SUMMERLAND CITIZENS ASSOCIATION FOR 50 YEARS OF DEDICATED SERVICE IN OUR COMMUNITY

WHEREAS, the Summerland Citizens Association (SCA) was established in 1955 to preserve the unique character of Summerland, protect the charm and beauty of the community, and work with County government to achieve those goals; and

WHEREAS, the SCA reviews all new development plans in Summerland to be sure the guidelines of the Community Plan are met and provides comments to the County's South Board of Architectural Review for proposed projects; and

WHEREAS, the SCA encourages all residents of Summerland to be active in the community by organizing beautification days that enhance and maintain landscape and open spaces for both residents and visitors to enjoy; and

WHEREAS, the SCA has been instrumental in protecting the environment through its work with the Santa Barbara County Parks Department to convert the former County Road Yard to a publicly accessible nature preserve that includes the replanting of native plant species and establishing a recycling facility for the community; and

WHEREAS, the SCA is dedicated to keeping the history of Summerland alive for future generations to learn and appreciate by publishing a bi-monthly newsletter, "Summerland Splash", and cataloguing information about historical events and the many beloved buildings located throughout the community.

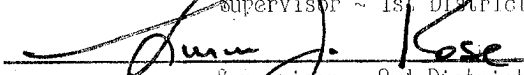

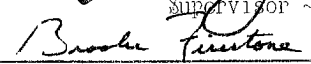

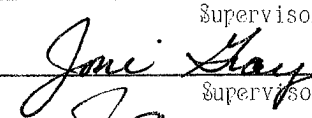

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED AND RESOLVED that this Board of Supervisors honors and commends the Summerland Citizens Association for 50 years of dedicated service to the Summerland community.

Passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County, State of California, this 20th day of June, 2006 by a unanimous vote of all members present.
