

COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA CALIFORNIA

RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE
DOS PUEBLOS HIGH SCHOOL
MOCK TRIAL TEAM

WHEREAS, the Dos Pueblos High School mock trial team, fresh off its run to the California State Championship round, was selected for the Empire Mock Trial World Championship Invitational tournament that was held in New York City in October 2012; and

WHEREAS, the tournament is considered the nation's most prestigious high school mock trial tournament, bringing together the top 36 teams from across the country and around the globe — including teams from the United Kingdom, Ireland, New Zealand, South Korea, Canada and Australia; and

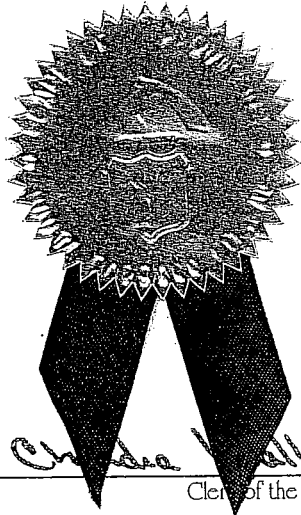

WHEREAS, the Dos Pueblos team stormed into the tournament by defeating their bracket's No. 1 seed — Henry Grady High School from Atlanta — in the second round and winning every single ballot on their way to the final. The Chargers advanced to the final as the only undefeated team in the tournament before coming up short against La Reina; and

WHEREAS, Dos Pueblos is the only mock trial team in California to finish in the top 10 at state in the past three years. Last year's team advanced all the way to the state final, losing a close match against La Reina High School from Ventura County; and

WHEREAS, the Dos Pueblos team's faculty adviser, Bill Woodard, was also selected as the Constitutional Rights Foundation's 2012 Adult Advocate of the Year for his work with the Dos Pueblos program.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Board of Supervisors recognizes the many accomplishments of the Dos Pueblos High School Mock Trial team and wishes them well in their future competitions.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County, State of California, this 5th day of March, 2013 by a unanimous vote of all members present.
