RESOLUTION HONORING EWALD "ED" ANDRISEK FOR DEDICATED PUBLIC SERVICE UPON HIS RETIREMENT FROM THE BUELLTON CITY COUNCIL

WHEREAS, Mr. Andrisek and his wife Beverly moved to the Santa Ynez Valley in 1971 and were long-time small-business owners and faithful members of the Buellton Chamber of Commerce; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Andrisek served on the Buellton Community Service District Board for nearly 10 years prior to the City of Buellton's incorporation in 1992 and he was subsequently elected to the Buellton City Council in 2004, 2010, 2014, and 2018; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Andrisek also served a term on the Solvang City Council from 1998-2002, including one year as Mayor; and

WHEREAS, during Mr. Andrisek's time on the Buellton City Council, some of his most proud accomplishments include the building of the Buellton Recreation Center and gym, the PAWS dog park, improvements to Avenue of the Flags, and the opening of the Zaca Creek Public Golf Course; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Andrisek is also proud of a legacy for identifying, recruiting, encouraging, and mentoring others to serve in local government.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Board of Supervisors recognizes Mr. Andrisek's dedicated public service and thanks him for decades of public service to the Santa Ynez Valley upon his retirement from the Buellton City Council.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County, State of California, this 13th day of September, 2022 by a unanimous vote of all members present.
