My nearly 40 years of researching and teaching "law and society" and "constitutional law" provide me with a solid understanding of a wide variety of employment issues and the laws that govern them. My administrative experience at the University of California and in the public interest arena affords me the practical understanding of an employer.

13. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Give any information explaining your qualifications, experience, training, education, volunteer activities, community organization memberships, or personal interests that bear on your application for above Board, Commission, or Committee. Attach additional sheets as necessary.

I have been a Professor of Political Science at UC Santa Barbara since 1976 (emerita status in March, 2010). An aspect of this work has entailed community service on campus and in the larger local and national realms. Such service has included, but not been limited to, service on organizational boards, serving as the founding president of the Santa Barbara Women's Political Committee, co-hosting live law radio program on KCSB, serving as a speaker or moderator at many public events, and as an interviewee on local and national media. I also served briefly on the California Democratic Central Committee
