Veteran Services via Healing Heroes Through Horsemanship’s mission is to empower Veterans, First Responders, and other at-risk groups through vocational horsemanship training, equine-assisted programs, peer-to-peer support, and vocational rehabilitation initiatives. They are dedicated to transforming lives through the power of horsemanship, while also providing re-training and re-homing opportunities for retired racehorses and other horses in transition.

They envision a future where the powerful bond between humans and horses transforms lives, offering hope, resilience, purpose, and a path to recovery for individuals facing challenges, and for equine companions in need.
