Summary Text:

Through funding provided by the Juvenile Justice Crime Prevention Act (JJCPA) and the Youthful Offender Block Grant (YOBG), the attached Agreements with community-based organizations provide a variety of evidence-based services to medium and high risk youth under probation supervision and their families. The range of interventions includes county-wide family focused treatment services; gender-responsive cognitive behavioral treatment; trauma informed, culturally competent comprehensive character development programming; and, short-term mentoring services.

Background:

The Juvenile Justice Crime Prevention Act (JJCPA) was created by the Crime Prevention Act of 2000 to provide a stable funding source for local juvenile justice programs aimed at curbing crime and delinquency. Counties may use the State funds to support prevention, intervention, suppression, or custody programs based on local needs, and requires that counties provide programs that have been demonstrated to be effective in reducing delinquency. The Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council (JJCC) reviews local programs and oversees the development of a comprehensive multiagency juvenile justice plan.

The Youthful Offender Block Grant (YOBG), sometimes known as “juvenile realignment,” was enacted in 2007 by SB 81 (Chapter 175, Statutes of 2007) and reassigned from State to local control the non-violent, non-serious, non-sexual offenders within California’s juvenile justice system. In 2016, further amendments were made by AB 1998 (Chapter 880). The YOBG program realigned certain youth in California’s juvenile justice population from State to county control and prohibits counties from sending certain lower level offenders to the Division of Juvenile Justice (DJJ). Youth who are no longer eligible for DJJ commitment are those who commit an offense that is not listed in Welfare and Institutions Code (WIC) Section 707(b) and is not a sex offense as set forth in Penal Code Section 290.008(c).

YOBG supports the concept that public safety is enhanced by keeping juvenile offenders close to their families and communities. In recognition of the increased county responsibility for supervising and rehabilitating these youthful offenders, the State provides annual funding through the YOBG program. The California Department of Finance (DOF) calculates each county's allocation amount annually using its own demographic information for the juvenile population and California Department of Justice data for juvenile felony dispositions. As provided by statute, allocation from the YOBG fund may be used to enhance the capacity of county probation and to deliver appropriate rehabilitative and supervision services to youthful offenders.

Execution of the Family Services Agency (FSA) agreement will provide the Strengthening Families program, an evidence-based family skills training program designed to increase resilience and reduce risk factors for behavioral, emotional, academic, and social problems in youths age twelve (12) to age sixteen (16). This service shall be provided to medium and high risk youth under Probation supervision and their families, in the Santa Maria and Lompoc geographic areas.

Execution of the Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse (CADA) agreement will provide Multidimensional Family Therapy (MDFT), an evidence-based family-based treatment system for adolescent substance use, delinquency, and related behavioral and emotional problems to medium and high risk youth under probation supervision, and their parents/guardians, and will provide Reasoning & Rehabilitation 2 (RR2) - Short Version for Girls and Women, a cognitive behavioral treatment program, to high and medium risk female youth under probation supervision in the Santa Barbara region.

Execution of the Good Samaritan Shelter (Good Sam) agreement will provide Reasoning & Rehabilitation 2 (RR2) - Short Version for Girls and Women, a cognitive behavioral treatment program, to high and medium risk female youth under probation supervision in the Lompoc and Santa Maria regions.

Execution of the Community Action Commission (CAC) will provide Reasoning & Rehabilitation 2 (RR2) - Short Version for Youth, a cognitive behavioral treatment program, to high and medium risk male youth age 12-16, under probation supervision in Santa Barbara, Lompoc and Santa Maria regions, and in the Santa Maria Juvenile Hall and Los Prietos Boys Camp; will provide El Joven Noble groups to high and medium risk male youth age 14-18, under probation supervision in Santa Barbara, Lompoc and Santa Maria regions, and in the Santa Maria Juvenile Hall and Los Prietos Boys Camp; and will provide mentoring and case management services for high and medium risk male youth under probation supervision in Santa Barbara, Lompoc and Santa Maria regions.
