To Whom it Concerns:

As a senior executive with 5 decades of service in America's toughest cities, a former Marine combat veteran, and currently a college professor and president of a security consulting firm, I know crime from the inside out.

Here are my observations:

Enhance police funding and training. Do it now.

Follow the Rule of Law by rapidly and thoroughly investigating, arresting and incarcerating criminals. Do it now.

Prevent crime through community policing and education. Do it now.

Sincerely,

Scott Nelson
