a. Every state and local government agency is required to adopt a “conflict of interest code”. Government Code Section 87300. A conflict of interest code designates the positions within an agency that “involve the making or participation in the making of decisions which may foreseeably have a material effect on any financial interest” of the public official. Government Code Section 87302(a). The designated public officials must periodically disclose certain investments, interests in real property, sources of income, gifts, loans and business positions. The financial disclosures are compiled on Form 700 as required by the Fair Political Practices Act. Government Code Sections 81000 et.seq. Agencies must amend their conflict of interest codes when necessary to add or delete positions and disclosure categories, and the codes must be reviewed at least every two years.

b. On October 3, 1995, the Board of Supervisors directed the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor to adopt a comprehensive conflict of interest code that would cover multiple agencies. (Resolution No. 95-450). On December 5, 1995 the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor adopted a comprehensive code for County Departments, certain County related Commissions/Boards/Committees and Dependent Special Districts. This conflict of interest code became known as the “Single Code”. The Single

Resolution Approving Amendment the Single Code

Code is intended to help ensure timely amendments and revisions. Additionally, all financial disclosure statements (Form 700's) are filed in the Office of the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor, which provides a central repository for public access. The Board of Supervisors is the "code reviewing body" for the Single Code, and thus amendments are not effective unless approved by the Board of Supervisors. Government Code Section 87303.

c. As the code reviewing body, the Board of Supervisors has approved several amendments to the Single Code that were initially adopted by the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor. The amendments have added and deleted agencies, and revised the list of designated positions and disclosure categories.

d. The attached Amendment to the Single Code has been adopted by the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor (Attachment A). This amendment adds the County of Santa Barbara Indian Gaming Local Community Benefit Committee as a new member of the Single Code.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT AND IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND RESOLVED that:

1) The attached Amendment to the Single Code that has been adopted by the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor is approved (Attachment A).

2) All other provisions of Single Code that are not affected by this amendment remain in effect.
