

RESOLUTION OF THE SANTA BARBARA COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

A RESOLUTION DECLARING THAT THE THE SHELDON HOUSE LOCATED AT 681 BUENA VISTA DRIVE, SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, ASSESSOR'S PARCEL NO. 007-100-010, MEETS THE ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR A COUNTY HISTORIC LANDMARK AND IS WORTHY OF PROTECTION UNDER CHAPTER 18A OF THE SANTA BARBARA COUNTY CODE; AND DESIGNATION OF THE SHELDON HOUSE AS COUNTY LANDMARK #53 PRESCRIBING CONDITIONS TO PROTECT AND PRESERVE IT

RESOLUTION No. 2020-66

WHEREAS, the Santa Barbara County Board of Supervisors has considered the historical significance of the SHELDON HOUSE located at 681 Buena Vista Drive, Santa Barbara, California, on Assessor's Parcel No. 007-100-010 and as shown on the map and legal description attached hereto as Exhibit A, in accordance with the requirements, standards and criteria contained in County Code, Chapter 18A, and has determined that it is worthy of protection as a County Historic Landmark; and

WHEREAS, the Commission finds that the SHELDON HOUSE is historically significant because:

1. It exemplifies or reflects special elements of the County's cultural, social, aesthetic and architectural history, namely the contribution of Midwest visitors to the social and cultural life of the community, the heyday of Montecito estate development, and the establishment of Spanish Colonial Revival Architecture as a hallmark style of Santa Barbara; and
2. It is identified with persons or events significant in local and national history including architect James Osborne Craig, actor Jack Barrymore and Mrs. Theodore Sheldon's father, General Henry Strong, developer of the Oakleigh estate which was to become the Deane School and then Westmont College; and
3. It embodies distinctive characteristics of a style, type, period or method of construction, specifically the conjoining of simple plastered architectural forms with second floor balconies, red tile roofs, thick hollow tile walls and wooden beams to mimic Andalusian architecture and the historic Monterey Style Massini-Ortega Adobe; and
4. It is representative of the work of a notable builder, designer, or architect since James Osborne Craig's designs such as the Sheldon House, the

Hoffman House, and the central court of the El Paseo were widely publicized and highly influential; and

5. It contributes to the significance of a historic area, being a geographically definable area possessing a concentration of historic and scenic properties that are thematically related and contribute to each other, a Montecito residential neighborhood of notable houses including the Knight House and “Il Brolino” by George Washington Smith, the First Slater House by Mary Craig, and “Casa del Sueno” by Reginald Johnson; and
6. It embodies elements of architectural design, detail, materials or craftsmanship that represent a significant architectural achievement or innovation being the first (1918) of J. O. Craig’s picturesque Spanish Colonial designs built in Santa Barbara, that combined with the work of George Washington Smith to provide the foundation of an iconic style of community architecture; and
7. It is one of the few remaining examples in the county, region, state, or nation possessing distinguishing characteristics of an architectural or historical type or specimen because Craig’s untimely death at the age of thirty-three truncated his personal body of work.

WHEREAS, designation of the SHELDON HOUSE shall not require the expenditure of an unreasonable amount of money to carry out the purpose of County Code, Chapter 18A;

NOW, THEREFORE IT IS FOUND, DETERMINED AND RESOLVED as follows:

1. The building known as the SHELDON HOUSE located at 681 Buena Vista Drive, Santa Barbara, California, Assessor’s Parcel No. 007-100-010, meets the eligibility requirements for a County Historic Landmark as described in County Code, Chapter 18A, Section 18A-3, and is worthy of protection.

 - c. The foregoing conditions shall not be imposed in such a way as to infringe upon the right of the owners of the SHELDON HOUSE to make any and all reasonable uses of the property that are not in conflict with the purposes of County Code Chapter 18A.
 - d. The interior of the SHELDON HOUSE is not subject to the foregoing conditions set forth in subsections 2.a. and 2.b.
2. This designation shall expire after a period of ninety days, unless prior to the expiration of ninety days the Board of Supervisors shall have confirmed the action of the Historic Landmarks Advisory Commission pursuant to County Code, Chapter 18A, Section 18A-2.
