To: SB County Supervisors

Thank you for your previous vote to protect the county from Sable, a rogue company, that has proven time and again that it is incapable of acting responsibly. I was at the Coastal Commission meeting where all of its infractions were brought to light. What a long list! Please repeat your vote from last month to protect not only the human population of the county, but also its wildlife. The Refugio Oil Spill was no joke.

Thank you again for putting the best interests of the County above corporate interests.
