Recommended Actions:

Adopt attached resolution to rename the North Jameson Lane Bikepath the Barry Siegel Bikepath.

Summary Text:

Following the loss of alternative transportation advocate and distinguished Montecito community leader Barry Siegel last Fall, community members approached the First District regarding the possibility of naming a bikepath in Barry's honor. The North Jameson Lane Bikepath was selected to receive this distinction because its location in the Montecito community that Barry called home and because of its embodiment of the transportation planning ideas with Barry advocated for. In fact, Barry was integral in the development of the project during his service on the Highway 101 Task Force.

Background:

The North Jameson Lane Bikepath is a Class II Bikepath that which runs from Olive Mill Road to Sheffield Drive in Montecito, in the First Supervisorial District. The project was a product of the Highway 101 Task Force. It was completed in 2006 and also included the replacement and widening of three bridges. The bikepath connects to the Ortega Hill Bikepath to provide safe bicycle access between the Montecito and Summerland communities.
