Jonathan McKee here.

Thank you for sending the Resolve letter (requesting removal from Southern California region in the Regional Stay-Home-Order) to Newsom.

The Board's quick response to We the People is recognized.

Sincerely,
Jonathan

Stop all government shut-downs, now!

The science isn't there.

The alleged "State Orders" are arbitrary and capricious. Nobody is going to sue the County of Santa Barbara for not enforcing poorly designed Executive Orders -- especially when dictates infringe Constitutional protections. The opposite may occur; enforcement will spawn lawsuits.

We the People are at Liberty to be cautious amongst our own neighbors. Social distancing is a sufficient mitigation method. (Kind of like Leprosy during Bible times.)

The science isn't there. Science does not support random shut-downs. Don't be stupid. Be reasonable.

Tell the Sheriff to stand-down on lock-downs.

Respectfully,
Jonathan

For Santa Barbara County to be lumped with all of Southern California causes a terrible injustice to local small business that flies in the face of science. Please consider the people that depend upon small businesses. Let our county stand on local stats not broader stats that don't represent the true local condition. Acknowledge all the precautionary steps that are working well on a local level. Thank you!

Please open S.B.'s businesses and restaurants like they are doing in Solvang! It's quite clear that Newsom's mandates are baseless and designed to devastate our economy.

People's lives and livelihoods are being destroyed and there is no increase in the actual overall death rate. There is no real deadly pandemic.

@KevinKileyCA

dge just struck down LA Cour oor dining ban as "not ground ience, evidence, or logic." But Newsom thought it was such d idea he applied it statewide.

I am against Newsom's order to shut down businesses once again. I vote for Santa Barbara to collectively vote out of this order and safely keep businesses open. My name is Anjali Oertel. I'm a Santa Barbara resident. Phone number 805.280.99698.
