COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA
CALIFORNIA

RESOLUTION ACKNOWLEDGING
 THE WORK OF THE MORE MESA PRESERVATION COALITION

WHEREAS, More Mesa is one of the last remaining large, undeveloped open spaces in the South Coast urban area and its wealth of ecological, esthetic and recreational resources are highly valued by the local community; and

WHEREAS, it is extremely important to educate the general public, decision makers, agency staffs, public interest groups and potential developers about the resources and values present on this site. It is also important to inform these same stakeholders of existing adopted site specific, and general County and State planning documents, policies, and regulations that apply to More Mesa; and

WHEREAS, it is valuable to provide analysis and general management recommendations for the future of More Mesa; and

WHEREAS, this handbook will be a unique resource, useful to all those interested in the future of More Mesa, and a landmark document for decades to come.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY ORDERED AND RESOLVED that this Board of Supervisors recognizes The More Mesa Preservation Coalition and Amec Earth and Environmental for their outstanding work in publishing the award winning More Mesa Handbook, and the County's historic interest in this site's important environmental and esthetic resources and values, as reflected in the County's own adopted plans and policies.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County, State of California this 19th day of May, 2009 by a unanimous vote of all members present.
