As a previous designer and administrator of Early Childhood Education centers, I bring a lens and voice from the field of the important day to day work and challenges. As an Early Childhood Education professor and professional trainer and content specialist, I bring a history of the field and current developmentally appropriate approaches to serving children and families. I am interested in serving on this committee as I want to consistently promote that we are charged with serving children and have an opportunity to lay a foundation in the formative years that will influence a life-time of development.
