*A “designated employee” is anyone within the above-mentioned agency who is an officer, employee, member or consultant who is designated in the code because the position entails the making or participation in the making of decisions which may foreseeably have a material effect on any financial interest. (Government Code § 82019.)

The term “designated employee” does not include any officer identified in Government Code § 87200, i.e., members of planning commissions, members of the board of supervisors, district attorneys, county counsels, county treasurers, chief administrative officers and other public officials who manage public investments.

Consultants shall be included in the list of designated employees and shall disclose pursuant to the broadest disclosure category in the code, subject to the following limitation:

The Social Services Director may determine in writing that a particular consultant, although a “designated position,” is hired to perform a range of duties that is limited in scope and thus is not required to fully comply with the disclosure requirements described in this section. Such written determination shall include a description, a statement of the extent of disclosure requirements. The Social Services Director’s determination is public record and shall be retained for public inspection in the same manner and location as this conflict of interest code.
