That the Board of Supervisors:

Summary Text:

The Arts Commission wishes to revise their bylaws, which were last revised and approved in 2000 (see Attachment 2), in order to increase efficacy by adding:

- An attendance policy requiring Commissioners to be present in person or teleconference for at least seven of the 10 annual meetings without missing three consecutive months;
- A term limit of 6 years or two terms, though Commissioners can reapply to Supervisors following a one-year absence;
- An updated lexicon to address new and contemporary concepts in art;
- A Conflict of Interest Policy requiring that Commissioners cannot simultaneously serve as staff of the Community Services Department;
- A reorganization of standing committees to serve with greater impact;

- And finally a requirement that all Arts Commission subcommittee chairpersons also be active Arts Commissioners.

Background:

The Santa Barbara County Arts Commission was created by the Board of Supervisors in a unanimous vote on March 7, 1977 to support and encourage access to the arts for all county residents, and help provide recommendations and oversight for art in public places projects and exhibitions in the Channing Peake and Betteravia Galleries. The Commission includes 15 members, with 3 from each supervisorial district, appointed by the corresponding Supervisor. Commissioners serve overlapping terms of 3 years each, which start on July 1 and run through June 30.

The Commission’s operation follows the set of bylaws created upon its establishment and last amended in 2000. The Commission wishes to update the bylaws to better coordinate their duties and operations. Per the most recent bylaws, there are 4 standing subcommittees, which include County Arts in Public Places (CAPP). CAPP members should represent at least 4 supervisorial districts. Members are appointed for 2-year terms. Per Ordinance No. 3068, the committee’s function is to “supervise the One Percent for the Arts Program and advise the Commission on all matters concerning visual arts proposals.”

The first set of bylaws was approved by the Supervisors in 1978 and the current bylaws were approved by the Board of Supervisors on November 8, 2000.
