ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND COMMUNITY ARTS RE-GRANTING

The Organizational Development Program grants public funding to local arts organizations for arts programs. The applicants to this program are representative of a diverse cross-section of arts organizations, including multicultural and neighborhood arts programs. The focus of the Organizational Development Program is to provide funds to assist arts organizations to increase audiences and earned income.

Organizational Development grants will support operational, marketing and promotional expenses for organizations. Organizations must indicate the impact these funds will have upon their audience development and earned income. Organizational Development grants will support programs that address increases in audience through direct programmatic partnerships or new marketing strategies.

The City of Santa Barbara's allocation for the Organizational Development Program is $146,100 for Fiscal Year 2015-2016.

The Community Arts Program funds community arts groups that provide small-scale projects, programs for children and youth, and grants to leverage other funding for arts programs. Often, projects supported by Community Arts grants occur one time only and are not offered on an ongoing basis. The objective of the Community Arts grants is to ensure accessibility to the arts for all members of the community. All grants are made for projects within the City of Santa Barbara.

The City of Santa Barbara allocation for the Community Arts Grant is $47,000 for Fiscal Year 2015 -2016.
