

The version of Section 37A-2(f) that would prohibit the sale of flavored vaping products without prohibiting the sale of flavored “traditional” tobacco products:

“Flavored Tobacco Product” means any electronic smoking device that contains a taste or smell, other than the taste or smell of tobacco, that is distinguishable by an ordinary consumer either prior to, or during the use of the device, including, but not limited to, any taste or smell relating to fruit, menthol, mint, wintergreen, chocolate, cocoa, vanilla, honey, or any candy, dessert, alcoholic beverage, herb, or spice.
