

COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA CALIFORNIA

RESOLUTION HONORING SCOTT HOSKING UPON HIS RETIREMENT FROM THE COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA

WHEREAS, Scott Hosking has served in public service for a combined 36 years with 32 of those years in the General Services Department where he has been the Facilities Maintenance Division Manager since 2012; and

WHEREAS, Scott began his career in 1987 at the County of Santa Barbara as an Engineering Tech Aid with the Public Works Department, assisting the County Architect with vital County projects, later advancing into the role of Engineering Tech II and supporting special projects such as the underground storage tank removal program, fuel station construction and the asbestos awareness program; and

WHEREAS, Scott took a brief leave from County employment to pursue a business partnership, later returning to public service as a contractor on payroll working as a project manager and overseeing the construction of these notable County facilities; Casa Nueva, Children's Services, District Attorney's Office Building and the Public Defender Courthouse remodel; and

WHEREAS, Scott's impact in the diverse roles that he has held at the County can be summarized in three words; "exceptional public service". There are very few employees at the County who don't know who Scott is and what he does. Scott is a key contributor at the Emergency Operations Center Logistic section, where he always responds and is the "Go To" resource for Logistics, providing support and solutions during emergency activations. Scott's personable approach and leadership style are widely known throughout the County. His dedication and commitment to serving the County is synonymous with the County's core values; and

WHEREAS, Scott's next chapter of life will be filled with opportunities to share time with family, travel and explore new adventures;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY ORDERED AND RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County does hereby acknowledge Scott Hosking for his years of dedicated service to the citizens of Santa Barbara County and congratulates him upon his retirement.
