Hi Jacquelyn and Meigan,

Here are a few words to recognize our former CEO, Dean Palius of People Helping People in Solvang, CA. I understand he will be recognized next week.

The Board of Directors of People Helping People is extraordinarily grateful for the quarter century that Dean dedicated to building a highly regarded and respected organization that has made such a profound difference in the lives of so many. Dean's experience, contribution, entrepreneurial spirit, sense of humor, and compassion for and desire to help those less fortunate will be missed by all at People Helping People and those we work with and serve.

Francisca Escobar
Board President
