Summary Text:

The Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Office has been awarded a competitive grant of $539,660.00 from California Department of Justice (DOJ) to allow for proactive enforcement of firearms laws prohibiting individuals from possessing firearms and ammunition. This grant will be used to implement an Armed Prohibited Persons team and will assign one dedicated full-time detective. The detective will investigate potential violations by analyzing the Armed Prohibited Person System (APPS) list. The detective will work diligently combing through the APPS list to identify persons living within the cities and unincorporated areas of the County of Santa Barbara, who are prohibited from owning firearms.

Background:

The California Department of Justice has the APPS that monitors registered owners who might fall in prohibited status. APPS is a law enforcement database maintained and run by the California Department of Justice that tracks individuals who are prohibited from possessing firearms due to a felony warrant, restraining order, admission to a mental health facility, conviction of felony, condition of prohibition or certain misdemeanor convictions such as domestic violence. At present there are zero CA-DOJ Firearms or local law enforcement resources currently within Santa Barbara County who actively investigate suspected violations stemming from the APPS. The APPS list within Santa Barbara County continues to grow, and with the lack of dedicated resources it will continue to grow unabated. The number of Gun Violence Restraining Orders (GVRO's) issued per year has increased rapidly, with GVRO's record in 2020 (851) 9-times greater than those recorded in 2017 (88).

This grant will allow the Sheriff's Office the ability to conduct effective enforcement of firearms laws prohibited certain individuals from possessing firearms and ammunition.
