

COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA CALIFORNIA

RESOLUTION CELEBRATING THE 30th ANNIVERSARY OF ARTS OUTREACH

WHEREAS, thirty years ago four artists in the Santa Ynez Valley founded Arts Outreach to fill the void in art education in local schools caused by budget cuts; and

WHEREAS, Arts Outreach now employs over fifty artist/teachers, provides in-school arts education to over 2,500 students each year, and also offers after school classes in visual art, music, dance, and drama, at facilities throughout the Santa Ynez Valley; and

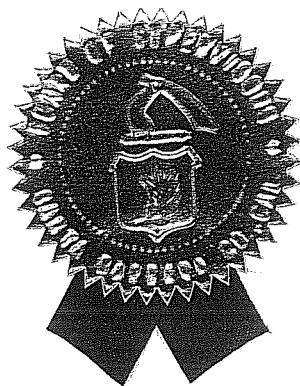

WHEREAS, Arts Outreach makes available Summertime Arts classes for Santa Ynez Valley students from K-8th grade and sponsors the annual Applause-Young Artists Program where over 300 students, grades 5-12, demonstrate their talents in the visual and literary arts; and

WHEREAS, for nineteen years Arts Outreach has offered the Annual Summer Drama Theater that provides hands-on instruction in the entire spectrum of live theater arts, and which culminates in four sold out performances each year; and

WHEREAS, Arts Outreach sponsors a bi-weekly Elder Arts Program which brings music and dance programs to all the senior citizens centers in the Valley;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED AND RESOLVED that this Board of Supervisors hereby celebrates the 30-Year Anniversary of Arts Outreach.

Passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County, State of California this 28th day of September, 2010 by a unanimous vote of all members present.
