

COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA CALIFORNIA

RESOLUTION HONORING THE PAST & FUTURE OF UNION BANK, SANTA BARBARA BANK & TRUST MAIN BRANCH

WHEREAS, in 1960, three local businessmen and civic leaders – Reuben Irvin, Louis Lancaster and Ralph Raddue – believed that their local friends and neighbors deserved a better way of community banking; and

WHEREAS, together, they launched Santa Barbara National Bank's flagship branch at 20 East Carrillo Street in the heart of beautiful Santa Barbara.; and

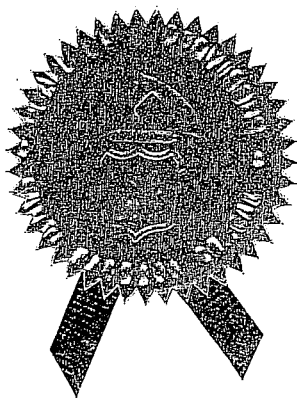

WHEREAS, the Bank and their award winning employees would become known near and far as Santa Barbara Bank & Trust and would set a new standard of community partnership. Over the years they would grow to over 50 branches and touch many appreciative communities along the California's golden central coast; and

WHEREAS, Santa Barbara Bank & Trust has now teamed with Union Bank in extending this rare brand of customer service and community stewardship; and

WHEREAS, right where this history began 53 years ago, Union Bank's Santa Barbara downtown branch – one of the largest in California – will now be known as Union Bank, Santa Barbara Bank & Trust Main Branch; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT AND IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND RESOLVED that this Board of Supervisors honors the rich past and celebrates the beginning of the new future and new partnership while furthering a very special banking and community legacy, as it will forever be known as Union Bank, Santa Barbara Bank & Trust Main Branch.

Passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County, State of California this 2nd day of July, 2013 by a unanimous vote of all members present.
