RE: Santa Ynez Band of Chumash Indians and County Issues

Dear Supervisor Carbajal:

The Santa Ynez Band of Chumash Indians ("Tribe") writes you to confirm the August 20, 2013 Board of Supervisors agenda item to try to attempt to re-start a government-to-government dialogue between the County and the Tribe. The Tribe remains hopeful that the County will begin government-to-government discussions on a variety of issues that the County and Tribe have with each other.

In the meantime, the Tribe has officially filed an administrative fee-to-trust application for the Camp 4 property in addition to its legislative efforts to take such land into trust. Courtesy copies of such application are being delivered to County Counsel shortly.

Sincerely,

Vincent P. Armenta
Tribal Chairman
